

The Observer

The Alsace region is a great centre for Riesling, which it makes in a style marked by the variety's typical quivering steeliness and minerals, as in Hugel's textbook example. Boosted with orchard fruit succulence, blossom and spice.

David Williams – 20th Jan 2019

Decanter

COLERAINE 2016

96 POINTS – Andy Howard MW

“Probably New Zealand’s most age worthy red.
With time this will blossom into a great Pauillac equivalent”

January 2019

