Torres Natureo De-alcoholised Red

"Was impressive. Sparkling wines are an easier proposition thanks to the distracting effect of the bubbles and these, too, have improved."

Guigal Cotes du Rhone Rose 2021

“A producer not only of fabulous Rhone reds and white Condrieu. Guigal also makes an expressive dry, full-bodied rose packed with vibrant strawberry, cranberry, herbs and spice. Try it with roast vegetables, saffron chicken or prawns.”

Joanna Simon - 4th July 2023

Torbreck Old Vines, Barossa Valley 2018

“Old vines are used in this Grenache-Mourvedre-Shiraz blend, aged 24 months in French oak hogsheads. At a lovely point of its evolution now, it has a density of red and black berries, leathery-soft tannins and savoury coffee bean oak.”

Grahams Fine White Port

"Graham's white Port is fine indeed, unpretentiously balancing fleshly, sweet stone fruit with notes of fresh almond camomile and apple blossom. The perfect base for a Port & Tonic or simply on the rocks, this is a compulsory presence in the fridge door through spring and summer."

Food

Yalumba Organic Viognier, Australia

"The peach flavours in this aromatic, refreshing white echo those of the salad."
