Yalumba, The Octavius 2018

“Dialled down the aggression of previous vintages, however still celebrates the muscle of 100-year-old Barossa Shiraz just in a more elegant package, helped by cooler, higher- altitude Eden Valley fruit in the blend and less strident oak.”

Familia Torres, Purgatori 2019

“Blend of Carinena, Garnacha and Syrah from one of Torre’s regeneratively managed vineyards in the harsh, arid climate of Costers del Segre in Catalonia. Brooding, smoky nose. Excellent grip and firm tannic structure, with lovely depth of sweet ripe fruit and hints of liquorice, pepper and spice. Good length and wears its 14.5% lightly.”

Jansz Tasmania Premium Cuvée

“Again made from chardonnay and pinot noir, this time grown in the relatively cool vineyards of Tasmania, this fine Aussize fizz is fresh and crisp with apricot and lemon fruit. Eighteen months ageing on lees has added nuances of freshly baked bread and nutty nougat. Snap it up on this excellent offer.”

Champagne Henriot Blanc de Blancs

“A brilliant blanc de blancs that reliably delivers the wonderful characters of fine Chardonnay in Champagne. That means plenty of fresh fruit flavours from pear to nectarine and juicy lemon, allied to notes of crushed chalks and then lees-aged characters from toast to grilled hazelnuts. Lovely and refreshing in a gently smoky, reductive style.”

“The Yalumba estate helped to make Coonawarra famous. This is dense and bold with lovely structure and notes of dark fruit, mint and tobacco.”
